

Harwell: HealthTec/ Life Sciences event

Start Date: Tuesday, November 21, 2017

10:00 AM

End Date: Tuesday, November 21, 2017 11:30 AM

Harwell campus are pleased to extend an invitation to their next HealthTec/ Life Sciences event on the 21 st November (1000-1130).

Advancements in healthcare are increasingly dependent on the juxtaposition of knowledge from different fields, and this event will focus on inter-disciplinary collaboration between physical and life sciences and also introduce the new Rosalind Franklin Institute which links 240 scientists across 10 universities, bringing together life sciences, physical sciences and engineering.
