

Oxford Medical CE Marking Forum

Start Date: Monday, April 24, 2017 9:00

AM

End Date: Monday, April 24, 2017 10:00 AM

You are invited to the ongoing seminar series hosted by the Oxford Medical CE Marking Forum.

Date : Monday, 24th of April, 2017

Time : 9:00-10:00am

Venue : Botnar Research Center

Our guest speaker, Gurge Phull , will be giving a presentation on:

Medical Device Risk Management – a holistic approach

Gurge Phull, Ph.D., Medical Regulatory Affairs Manager at Element. Element has laboratories worldwide and testing provide services to the Aircraft, Oil, Railway, Automotive, MOD and Medical industry. His team provides advice and resources to companies for worldwide medical device regulatory compliance.

over twenty years experience in the pharmaceutical industry (covering R&D, clinical and registrations) worked with IVD's (HIV, Hep C, etc), pathology instrumentation and training (customer/sales /service) for more than a decade has more than 17 years experience working with medical devices

As main lead / head of quality assurance / regulatory affairs in the UK and abroad has experience and expertise:

in product design & development (inception to market launch), manufacturing, training, auditing quality / regulatory systems for worldwide compliance (EU, USA, ROW – CE marking (MDD), FDA's QSR, ISO 13485 etc)

standards and testing compliance