Official Sponsors of the Purchasing Consortium

In February 2019 OBN launched its new online Purchasing Platform. The aim of this Purchasing Platform is to enable users to have a better overview and control of spend and so save time and money.

The Purchasing Platform, sponsored by Fisher Scientific and provided by ELCOM, is a cloud-based procurement solution, which allows Members to place orders directly with OBN's preferred suppliers and a host of others all in one portal. Fisher Scientific Punch-out is now available and provides a direct link to the Fisher Scientific website via the Purchasing Platform, allowing for live availability of stock and prices.

- Great ROI and spend under management
- Lower transaction costs
- Reduced purchasing costs
- Comprehensive spend analysis
- Opportunities to expand capabilities and grow with the organisation

Purchasing Platform benefits include:

- Greater control of spend
- All suppliers in one place
- Guided buying experience
- Increased compliance

Please see below details of the companies who we currently have catalogues or Punchout for. Additional suppliers will be added on a regular basis and all users will be notified when these are due to go live.
